

GREEN DOG INJURY PROTOCOL

- Employees will immediately notify their supervisor when occupationally-related injuries and illnesses occur, or when employees first become aware of such problems.
- In-Clinic Supervisors will immediately contact HR representatives.
- HR representatives will investigate all accidents, injuries, occupational illnesses, and near-miss incidents to identify the causal factors or attendant hazards. Appropriate repairs or procedural changes will be implemented promptly to mitigate the hazards implicated in these events.
- HR representatives will immediately file a claim - this must be completed before said employee arrives at urgent care.

EMPLOYEE WORK-RELATED INJURY AND ILLNESS REPORTING:

Employee work-related injuries or illnesses must be immediately reported to the supervisor and this protocol must be followed. All work-related injuries, illnesses, and accidents must be reported within 24 hours.

IN THE EVENT OF AN INJURY, PLEASE FOLLOW STEPS 1-5 BELOW:

Non-emergency, during regular work hours Mon-Sat (8am – 7pm):

- 1) Employee to notify their supervisor immediately after injury.
- 2) Employee to click here and answer the questionnaire (this will prompt HR to call and file the employee's claim immediately).
- 3) HR representative gathers all employee injury information, calls in the claim, and generates a claim number for the employee.
- 4) HR representative gives the employee the following information with their claim number before they leave to the urgent care facility:
